

Tyler
Turner

Height	6 ft. 2 in.
Waist	32
Shoe	12
Eyes	Blue
Hair	Brown
Suit	41L
Shirt	16 x 34
Inseam	34

GOOD STUFF

ALL AMERICAN

We in Minnesota were wearing Red Wing boots and toting Duluth Pack sacks long before the fashion world deemed them cool. The American Heritage movement, embraced from New York to Japan, has been a global boon to many heartland brands. Last year, two of them, St. Paul-based J.W. Hulme Co. and Pierrepont Hicks of Minneapolis, created NorthernGRADE Men's Market as a celebration of American-made, high-grade menswear. The second annual market on September 10 promises to be bigger, showcasing 22 companies from Minnesota and beyond. These are a few of our favorites. Expect a lively day of shopping, live music, good food, and more well-groomed men wearing skinny jeans and neckties than you've ever seen in one room. —A. K.

BLACKBLUE

• The St. Paul maker has a pair that's for business lunch and dress dinners, such as this well-tailored jacket.
Jacket ($290), by Ayres Global Colors, from BlackBlue, 334 Selby Ave., St. Paul, 651-362-6342, blackblue.com

J.W. HULME CO.

• The mostly metal and company has been manufacturing fine cases and leather bags in St. Paul since 1905.
Messenger satchel ($200), from J.W. Hulme Co., 675 W. 7th St., St. Paul, 651-222-7259, juhulme.com

RED WING SHOE CO.

• Manufacturing work boots for more than 100 years, the company's still based in Red Wing and produces its Hartcap line in the United States.
Antique work boot ($240-360), from Red Wing Shoe Co., 150 Lexington Ave. N., Minneapolis, 612-481-3470, redwingshoes.com

PIERREPONT HICKS

• It takes 16 steps by master craftsmen to produce a tie for this Minneapolis brand, founded by a husband-and-wife team in 2003.
Wool tie ($220), from BlackBlue, 434 Selby Ave., St. Paul, 651-262-5343, pierreponthicks.com

TAYLOR STITCH

• The small San Francisco-based company designs, cuts, and sews its tailored shirts in California.
Shirt ($200), from sublinstitch.com

DULUTH PACK

• This century-old Duluth-based company makes durable bags, belts, and accessories for outdoor men (and women).
Leather belt ($200), from duluthpack.com

MARKENPATRICKS

• The Minneapolis men's store, a NorthernGRADE participant, is a haven for many small design-driven lines.
Shirt & Famous design ($200), from markenpatrick.com, 227 3rd Ave. N., Mpls., 612-766-5322, markenpatrick.com

What: NorthernGRADE Men's Market
When: Noon to 8 p.m., Saturday, September 10
Where: Architectural Antiques, 1330 NE Quincy St., Mpls.
Info: northerngrade.com