BATHING BEAUTY

This summer's eye-catching one-pieces will make a splash whether you're lounging on a private island or at the neighborhood pool. A jeweled neckline and deep V are a sexy update to a simple black suit. Add a safari element with tribal-print bangles or a chunky turquoise ring, and throw on some aviators to protect those baby blues from the sun. The shoe of the season is a cork-bottomed wedge—comfortable enough to walk in yet stylish enough to head out for drinks at dusk. And don't forget summer's No. 1 accessory: sunscreen.
